Website disclaimer

If you are browsing the materials on our website, the following disclaimer is applicable.

Some of the material on this website seeks to provide you with a broad outline of your rights. However, the law in most areas is complex and changes frequently and the website would be difficult to read and maintain if we attempted to set out in detail all of the case law and legislation that might be relevant to your legal problem. Accordingly, you should not make any decision that affects any legal right or interest that you might have without first consulting a qualified legal practitioner who can properly consider your particular situation.
